MESSAGE NOTES AND HIGHLIGHTS

- But now apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. | Romans 3, v.21
  - In most parts of culture, we have to be good enough to earn our place or reach the next level.
  - The apostle Paul teaches us that our right standing with God comes from God, not from us.
  - This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. | Romans 3, v.22
  - There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God... | Romans 3, v.23
  - We're all in the same boat. We all do wrong. We all fall short.
  - ...and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. | Romans 3, v.24
  - Everyone can be made right with God, for free through Jesus by his grace.
  - You don't have to be good enough. Jesus paid it all, and that is good enough.
  - You don't need to spend your life on the treadmill of religion. You can just place your trust in Jesus.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Often in our culture, we're trained to think we must earn and achieve our way to being "enough." What are some ways this has been true for you?
2. In what ways do you struggle to feel like you "measure up" or are "good enough"?
3. Scripture teaches that we all fall short, and that God's grace and goodness are enough. Have you experienced this? How does living in grace differ from trying to earn your way through life?
