

THE WAY OF WISDOM

Tell Yourself the Truth

FEBRUARY 4, 2024

For better or for worse, our choices will determine our direction. So how do we make better choices? The answer isn't necessarily more information—we have more than enough these days. What we really need is wisdom.

MESSAGE NOTES AND HIGHLIGHTS

- Wisdom isn't just information. Wisdom is information applied well.
 - In the information age, lack of information isn't a problem; a lack of wisdom is.
 - Though it cost all you have, get understanding. | Proverbs 4:7
 - The choices we make impact our lives more than anything else.
 - The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure. Who can understand it? | Jeremiah 17:9
 - Because our hearts can lie to us, we need to learn to ask, "Am I telling myself the truth?"
 - "Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." | John 8:32
 - Be willing to look at your decisions and ask yourself the real reason behind them.
-

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What have been your consistent sources or methods of gaining wisdom?
2. What is the best piece of wisdom you've gotten?
3. What are some ways you know you've lied to yourself?
4. What is an aspect of your life in which God has been revealing truth recently? Or what is an aspect of your life in which you need to seek that truth?